Lesson Title:

Grade Level:

Lesson Time Length:

Big Idea: (What do you want students to understand at a deep level? An example might be “Students understand that the relationships between Native American groups, immigrants, and European Americans were very complex.”)

Lesson Abstract: (Provide a short two or three sentence description highlighting what your lesson is about.)

Lesson Background and Context: (Provide a paragraph or two that provides users with a sense of time, events, and place in which your lesson fits.)

Standards Alignment: (List the state standards and benchmarks that this lesson will target.)

Objectives (Describe what students will know and be able to do after their learning. This should be a simple list of specific content knowledge and historical / literacy skills.)

Teaching Materials: (List the resources you use to deliver the lesson. This might include textbooks, trade books, fiction, videos, artifacts, and primary sources.)

Vocabulary: (List the terms and concepts will students learn.)

Lesson Implementation and Procedures: (List and describe the steps necessary to deliver this lesson.)

Technology Integration: (What technology will you and your students use to complete this lesson? This may include web sites, software, simulations, Web 2.0 tools, social media, and devices such as iPads.)

Evaluation and Assessment: (What evidence will students provide to prove they have learned what you want them to learn? List any formative and summative tools that the teacher uses as part of this lesson.)

Extension and Enrichment: (Describe how you will extend the learning for gifted students as well as what you might do for remediation and re-teaching.)

Resources: (Be sure to attach student handouts, lecture notes, presentations and other documents associated with the lesson.)
